Final exam

Details

Towards the end of the lecturing period students give an expert presentation. They have to present and assess their topic in a given time frame. The presentation accounts for 30% of the final grade.

After the end of the seminar, students turn in a report that is written according to the rules of scientific literature. The report will be graded based on structure, presentation, arguments put forward and source literature used, but also based on the critical discussion of statements found in the referenced sources, and based on the students' ability to draw their own well-grounded conclusions. The report accounts for 70% of the final grade.
